

Have you forgotten who you serve? I'll give you a hint...it's not the lobbyist that give you millions and buy vacations for you. Trying to sneak this issue through the back door without public review is unacceptable. I plan to file a complaint with my congressman as this commission has failed miserably in every endeavor it has taken on.